

Fall Advising Practicum, October 30, 2013

09:00-10:20 Initiatives Workshops for first and second year students.

10:30-11:20 Department and Program Fair for exploring students (Pearsons Hall).

Selected Events

All Events for All Departments, Programs, Offices or All Themes

Time Block	Location	Department Program or Office	Theme	Title	Type	Audience	Facilitators
10:30	GODF 102	Anthropology		Senior Transcript Inventory - Senior students will review printouts of their transcripts to make sure they fulfill all requirements for the Anthropology major.		Senior.	Nancy Krusko & Shannon Fie
10:30	Godfrey 103	Museum Studies		Museum Studies Beyond the Bubble: Internships, Graduate Programs, and Careers. Alumni and other visitors will discuss the paths available to museum studies students and will share their own experiences.		Junior, Senior.	Museum Studies program faculty and museums staff.
10:30	MI 208	Political Science, International Relations		Tips on law school and graduate school in political science and international relations.		Junior, Senior, Legal studies minors, Senior.	Jill Budny, Adam Ziegfeld
10:30	MI 213	Education & Youth Studies		Declared EDYS track 1 and 2 majors (prospective teachers)		Second Year, Junior.	Jingjing Lou, Kathy Greene
10:30	SC 150		Planning Your Curriculum	Why your major doesn't—and does—matter Get some perspective on that all-important (yet not in quite the way you might think) decision—how to make it and how to tell others about the place of your major in your liberal arts education, no matter what you decide. In this interactive session, you'll hear from others about how and why they chose as they did, and you'll make progress toward coming to your own decision.		First year, Second Year.	Natalie Gummer (and others)
10:30	SC 201		Planning Your Curriculum	Making the Most of Your Summer How can you use Summer 2014 to pursue your goals, explore new careers, or serve your community? Learn how to search for exciting opportunities, from professional internships to academic research to service work. Attend this session to learn how to start your search now and identify opportunities for summer funding. We'll use examples from real students as our guide to crafting your ideal search.		First year, Second Year, Junior.	Jessica Fox-Wilson
10:30	SC 202		Finding Balance And Health	Sub-Free and Happy Connect with others who choose to be substance-free (either always or sometimes) at Beloit. As a group we will discuss strategies for finding your place on campus, available campus resources and support groups, and how your choices and values make a positive contribution to your life and the lives of others around you.		First year, Second Year.	Kelsey Schultz and Sarah Tweedale
10:30	SC 245	Psychology		Part-time Master of Social Work at UW-Madison If you are looking for ways to advance your interests in psychology by working in the community addressing social justice or		Current or Prospective Psychology Majors, First year, Second	Diane Brandt; Psychology Faculty meeting the mental health needs of others, consider graduate work and a career in social work. Diane Brandt, Program Coordinator of UW School of Social Work Part-time MSW Program will share highlights of her program's offerings and answer students' questions.		Year, Junior, Senior.

10:30	SC 301		Planning Your Curriculum	Beyond the Checklist Curriculum: How the requirements (can) become your liberal arts education Why do we have our curriculum requirements? What are they anyway? And how can you think about these in terms of what you want to put into and get out of your education? This session addresses the importance of going "beyond the checklist" toward something more meaningful and productive.		First year, Second Year.	Charles Westerberg
10:30	SC 302	Health Professions		How do I choose my courses for my chosen health profession? How can I study abroad? How do I prepare a strong application for professional school in my chosen health profession?		Any student interested in health professions., First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Health Professions Advisory Committee
10:30	SC 349		Answering the "So What?" Question	Why Am I in College? Want to make the most of your next two or three years? Use this session to think about what Beloit College wants for you and what you want for yourself in order to identify your own educational goals and some strategies for achieving them.		First year, Second Year.	Fran Abbate
10:30	SC 402		Planning Your Curriculum	Resu-musts: How to write a great resume A resume is an essential document you will use over and over again throughout your professional career, yet it is often an intimidating process to begin. This session will demystify resume writing and equip you with tools you need to develop a strong resume.		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Karen Jones and Heather Gustat
10:30	SC 414	Chemistry, Biochemistry		Do you want to go to graduate school in chemistry or biochemistry? Should I go? Where should I go? How do I pick a field? How do I apply?		Junior, Senior.	Lisensky, Gries, Ordman
10:30	SC 444	Geology		Geological Society of America. Students discuss their experiences at the annual meeting of the Geological Society of America		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Carl Mendelson
10:30	Science Center 249	Biology		Planning for biology graduate school. Tips and tricks for finding the right graduate program and successfully completing your application.		Junior, Senior.	Biology faculty
10:30	WAC 109	Modern Languages and Literatures		Student Panel Discussion on Taking Your French, German, and/or Spanish to the Next Level: Issues, Strategies, Experience, and Success		First year, Second Year.	O. Voysest
10:30	Wright Art Museum, Logan Room	Art History		Required Art History Majors Group Advising Glancing Back, Looking Forward - Find out about choice opportunities, summer internship & job possibilities, off-campus study, capstones, and Honors Terms. Share & receive information with fellow art history majors & all three art history faculty in one place! All attendees at this session are cordially invited to an Art History Celebration Dinner at La Casa at 5:30 p.m. tonight!		Junior, Senior.	Jo Ortel, Joy Beckman, David Boffa

10:30	Wright Art Museum, Room 202	Studio Art		Graduate School Advising		Junior, Senior.	Mark Klassen
11:30	CELEB TV Studio	Theatre, Dance & Media Studies		Group Advising for Media Studies Majors: Here, Now, and Beyond Beloit! Meet with Dave & David to share thought, words and deeds relating to Media Studies. Learn how to plot a course to take the right courses to set you on a course for graduation and beyond. D & D will cover course requirements and fulfilling the LAP & departmental standards. The Beyond will cover international opportunities, internships, entrepreneurship and life after Beloit. Although the morning session may be more convenient for juniors/seniors and the afternoon more convenient for first and second year students, all are welcome at either/both sessions.		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	David Marcia, Dave Knutson
11:30	GODF 102	Anthropology		Building a Professional Identity - Students will learn how to apply their liberal arts experiences to the professional world, including short-term and long-term strategies for building a CV/resume, soliciting recommendations, and networking with professionals.		Junior, Senior.	Kylie Quave & Nicole Truesdell
11:30	Hendricks Center Conference Room #120	Theatre, Dance & Media Studies		Design and Stage Management – Production Track group advising Group advising for all Design and Stage Management students: Talk with all members of the production track, faculty and staff. Discussions will be relatively informal but intended to include course work, track requirements, and possible expectations or outcomes beyond Beloit College. Discussions will also include the mapping of work, assignments and expectations beyond the traditional classroom experience.		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Chuck Drury, Donna Thalman, Alicia Bailey
11:30	Hendricks Center Lobby	Theatre, Dance & Media Studies		Group Advising for dancers. Talk with dance faculty and peers about all things dance. Get your questions answered about courses, the major, performance opportunities on and off campus and much more. We will also share helpful information about having a life in dance and/or dance in your life beyond Beloit. Although the morning session may be more convenient for juniors/seniors and the afternoon more convenient for first and second year students, all are welcome at either/both sessions.		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Chris Johnson, Gina T'ai
11:30	Intercultural Center	Religious Studies		Advising session for majors and minors in Religious Studies. Professors Gummer and Majeed will assist you in identifying opportunities and making decisions for the semester and the years ahead, as well as developing a post-Beloit plan. All junior and senior majors are expected to attend; other students of religious studies are welcome to join us.		Junior, Senior.	Natalie Gummer, Debra Majeed, and student leaders
11:30	MI 209	Philosophy		Philosophy for fun and profit: how to think and talk about your philosophy major		Philosophy majors.	Philosophy faculty
11:30	MI 213	Education & Youth Studies		Declared (and prospective) Track 3 (Youth and Society) majors		Second Year, Junior, Senior.	William New
11:30	MI Fireplace	History		Drop-in Advising. Stop by to see your advisor and chat about the major, your		First year, Second Year, Junior,	E. Joyce, L. Sturtz, B.

	Lounge and Faculty Offices			plans, an next semester's courses. Some faculty will be in their offices, others will be in the Fireplace Lounge.		Senior.	McKenzie, R. LaFleur, D. Brückenhaus
11:30	MI-208	Political Science, International Relations		Capstone courses in political science and international relations		POLS and IR majors who are beginning to plan their capstone, Junior, Senior.	Jill Budny and Beth Dougherty
11:30	SC 140	Physics and Astronomy		Information on internships, summer research experiences, and applying to graduate schools in physics, engineering, and astronomy.		Junior, Senior.	Patrick Polley and Britt Scharringhausen
11:30	SC 150		Planning Your Curriculum	Practicing the Liberal Arts, in Life and in the Curriculum/Developing your Liberal Arts in Practice Experience Come find out what the liberal arts in practice is, and can be, for you. This session will explore bringing the liberal arts in practice alive in your own educational journey.		First year, Second Year, Junior.	Charles Westerberg
11:30	SC 201		Planning Your Curriculum	How Beloit-Sponsored Summer Experiences Can Enhance Your Education and Open up Opportunities Come find out how Beloit-sponsored programs like Beloit Blocks, Sustainability Fellows, Sanger Summer Scholars, the Center for Language Studies, and McNair Scholars can be springboards to opportunities to put your liberal arts education into practice.		First year, Second Year, Junior.	Scott Lyngaas and students
11:30	SC 202		Finding Balance And Health	"Where Did All My Time Go?" Do you struggle to keep track of assignments? Do you want help balancing your day? Do you want to become more motivated to do homework? Then come hear from students who have balanced coursework, paraprofessional positions, athletics, and other leadership positions. They will give tips, describe their struggles, talk about motivation, and answer your questions.		First year, Second Year, Junior.	Joy de Leon
11:30	SC 245	Psychology		Summer Opportunities in Psychology and Related Fields: Student Panel Come hear more from current students about the exciting opportunities they had at summer internships. The student panel will feature internship work at both research-oriented and applied areas of psychology.		Current or Prospective Psychology Majors, First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Psychology Faculty
11:30	SC 301		Making and Leveraging Connections	Advisor Alchemy: Spinning Vital Relationships into Academic Gold They look like ordinary people. But when approached with preparation, prompting and care, these "advisors" can have a dramatic impact on your college career. Join us for honest talk, tips and horror stories from actual advisors and seasoned advisees. You'll even have a chance to put ideas into practice with our patented advisor-session role-play. You'll leave with new perspectives and tangible tools that will help you positively interact with advisors and reach your fullest potential.		First year, Second Year.	Katie Johnson and John Kaufman
11:30	SC 349		Planning Your Curriculum	Condoms, Bookmarks, and Gourds: How to get hands-on in the Beloit community Come explore the various ways current Beloit students are working with the with		First year, Second Year.	Matthew Walthius, Rhiannon Decker, Daisy Gaines, Rachel and making a difference in the Beloit community. This session will highlight the role volunteering can play in a liberal arts in practice education and provide you with opportunities and contacts to participate in the community this semester and in the future.			Bond

11:30	SC 402		Planning Your Curriculum	Study Off-Campus: Why? How? What? Every second Beloit College student studies off campus for a semester or more? Why? How? What? In this session, studies who have studied off-campus, in the U.S. and abroad, will help you brainstorm ideas for why off-campus study might make sense for you.		First year, Second Year.	Josh Moore, Off-Campus Study Students and OIE Staff
11:30	Science Center 249	Health and Society		Student Panel. "Internship Opportunities in HEAL at Home and Abroad"		Junior, Senior.	Amelia Tarpey & Greg Buchanan
11:30	WAC South Lounge	English		Is Graduate School for Me?		Junior, Senior.	Matt Vadnais, Christi Clancy, Francesca Abbate, Chris Fink
11:30	Wright Art Museum, Logan Room	Studio Art		After College & Your Degree - We will discuss networking, building your identity, and transferring your skills to the real world.		Junior, Senior.	George Williams
11:30	Wright Art Museum, Room 202	Art History		Seven (More) Years: What To Know About Grad School & Other Options - Gain insight into the joys and perils of graduate studies from Prof. David Boffa, a recent Rutgers Ph.D. recipient (with a job!), and Skype with 3 recent Beloit College art history alums currently in grad school, working in art and non-art related fields.		Junior, Senior.	David Boffa, Jo Ortel, and recent B.C. art history alums
12:00	WAC 109	Modern Languages and Literatures		Modern Languages & Literatures Advising Practicum Lunch		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Modern Languages Faculty
12:30	Godfrey Lobby	Anthropology		Lunch & Mingle		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Department Faculty
12:30	Hendricks Center Lobby	Music, Theatre, Dance & Media Studies		Collaboration Brainstorming Lunch for Musicians and Dancers. If you have always wanted to collaborate with other students on a project involving dance and/or music, come have lunch with us, brainstorm about project ideas, meet others who also want to collaborate and be inspired! Dance and music faculty will be on hand to help facilitate and offer support. Lunch will be provided.		All musicians and dancers interested in collaboration., First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Daniel Barolsky, Chris Johnson, Gina T'ai
12:30	Intercultural Center	Religious Studies		Lunch gathering for all current and prospective majors and minors in Religious Studies. Please join us for great food and conversation, and to learn more about the program and upcoming offerings.		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Natalie Gummer, Debra Majeed, and student leaders
12:30	Liberal Arts in Practice Center	Liberal Arts in Practice		Think BIG! This Summer: Beloit College has received a grant from Great Lakes to provide 15 rising juniors and seniors with paid summer internships in the Beloit community. The wages will be competitive and allow for students to save money for tuition, while developing valuable professional skills. Attend this		Second Year, Junior.	Jessica Fox-Wilson session, which includes a Chipotle lunch, to learn more about the program and the application process.

12:30	MI Fireplace Lounge	History		Lunch--homemade food soup--and an overview of the spring semester's course offerings	First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	History Department Faculty
12:30	MI-208	Political Science, International Relations		Lunch / meet & greet	POLS / IR majors and minors, their family and friends, and students considering, First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	POLS/IR faculty
12:30	Mayer Wood	Sociology		The Trajectory of the Sociology Major	current or prospective department majors, First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Sociology Faculty
12:30	Mead Room (Pearsons)	Critical Identity Studies		PIZZA and CRIS (Critical Identity Studies) Lunch for CRIS majors/minors and those who are considering a CRIS major/minor.	First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Catherine Orr
12:30	Richardson Auditorium (MI 113)	Economics		Advisory Alumni Panel around the topics of graduate school and post-undergraduate professional experiences.	Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Laura Grube (Class of 2008, Professor of Economics), Tim Mohs (Class of 2010, Tax Accountant), Speci
12:30	SC 245, 241, 242	Psychology		Lunch with Psychology: Grab some of the Giant Taco from the Taco Bar in the Science Center and join Psychology majors and faculty in SC 245, 241, or 242 to discuss psychology major opportunities.	Current or prospective Psychology majors.	Psychology Faculty
12:30	SC 402	Chemistry		What courses should I take in chemistry? Visit the giant Science Center taco bar and then meet with faculty and majors for group advising and lunch.	First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Chemistry faculty
12:30	SC 432	Geology		What to take in Environmental Geology and Geology. Visit the giant Science Center taco bar and then meet with faculty and majors for group advising and lunch.	First year, Second Year.	Jim Rougvie
12:30	Science Center 249	Health and Society		Giant Taco lunch with HEAL faculty and students followed by Student Panel and Group Advising "Making the most of your HEAL Major"	First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Laura Parmentier & Greg Buchanan
12:30	Science Center 301 and 302	Biology		Environmental Biology and Ecology, Evolution, and Behavioral Biology majors: grab a piece of the giant taco and talk to peer advisors about your major.	Current and prospective majors, First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.
12:30	Science Center 349	Biology, Biochemistry		Molecular, Cellular, and Integrative Biology or Biochemistry majors: grab a piece of the giant taco and talk to peer advisors about your major.	Current and prospective majors, First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Biology faculty, Gries
12:30	Smith Building, 2nd Floor	Art History, Studio Art		Studio Art and Art History Majors/Minors Lunch - Join your fellow majors/minors for pizza and cookies! Find out about updates on spring 2014	First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Scott Espeseth, George Williams, Mark Klassen, Jo

				course offerings, exciting upcoming events, and other opportunities.			Ortel, Joy Beckman, Meredith Root, David Boffa
12:30	WAC 202	Classics		Classics Open House - What is Classics? Have lunch with the Classics Department, including current majors and faculty. Ask questions about the major's two tracks, the minor, language study (Greek, Latin), art and archaeology, philosophy, double-majoring, etc. Learn about study-abroad opportunities, grad school, post-Beloit careers, etc.		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Kosta Hadavas, Lisl Walsh, Matthew Taylor
12:30	WAC South Lounge	English		The Book was Better: Lunch with the English Department		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Chris Fink
2:00	Bunge Rehearsal Studio Neese Building	Theatre, Dance & Media Studies		Group Advising TDMS Performance Track An opportunity to meet with other performance track students to discuss class sequence, study abroad opportunities, LAP requirement and post-college plans. Students will also explore how their Beloit experience is lining up with their career and artistic goals.		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	John Kaufmann
2:00	CELEB TV Studio	Theatre, Dance & Media Studies		Group Advising for Media Studies Majors: Here, Now, and Beyond Beloit! Meet with Dave & David to share thought, words and deeds relating to Media Studies. Learn how to plot a course to take the right courses to set you on a course for graduation and beyond. D & D will cover course requirements and fulfilling the LAP & departmental standards. The Beyond will cover international opportunities, internships, entrepreneurship and life after Beloit. Although the morning session may be more convenient for juniors/seniors and the afternoon more convenient for first and second year students, all are welcome at either/both sessions.		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	David Marcia, Dave Knutson
2:00	GODF 102	Anthropology		Senior Moments: Reflections on Senior Experiences - Senior student panel will discuss the things that worked for them, as well as the things that did not, in the pursuit of their anthropology degrees.		First year, Second Year.	Lisa Anderson-Levy & Student Guests
2:00	Hendricks Center Lobby	Theatre, Dance & Media Studies		Group Advising for dancers. Talk with dance faculty and peers about all things dance. Get your questions answered about courses, the major, performance opportunities on and off campus and much more. We will also share helpful information about having a life in dance and/or dance in your life beyond Beloit. Although the morning session may be more convenient for juniors/seniors and the afternoon more convenient for first and second year students, all are welcome at either/both sessions.		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Chris Johnson, Gina T'ai
2:00	Intercultural Center	Religious Studies		If you keep up at all with current events, you know what a significant role religion(s) play in the world today. Why not figure out why? Whether you're interested in the academic study of religion or just want to know what it's about (and no, it's not about learning to be religious!), drop in to learn more.		All curious students, First year, Second Year.	Natalie Gummer, Debra Majeed, and student leaders

2:00	MI 209	Philosophy		How the philosophy major works, and why you should choose it		Prospective philosophy majors.	Philosophy faculty
2:00	MI 213	History		Studying the Past, Planning for the Future: a discussion of breadth, depth, and practicing the liberal arts as a history major		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	History Faculty
2:00	MI-208	Political Science, International Relations		Political science/international relations. What are these majors about and who are they for?		Undeclared students who might be considering a major or minor, First year, Second Year.	Rachel Ellett, Pablo Toral
2:00	Mayer Wood	Sociology		Are You Thinking about Majoring in Sociology? (Or Recently Declare?) Group Advising Session		current or prospective department majors, First year, Second Year.	Kate Linnenberg
2:00	Richardson Auditorium (MI 113)	Economics		Four seniors who received endowed internship awards to finance their Summer 2013 internships will describe what they learned from their internships and provide examples of what can be achieved via the Economics Department's endowed internship program.		Second Year, Junior.	Jeff Adams
2:00	SC 101	McNair Scholars		This session will explore the purpose of a PhD, and explain how the McNair Scholars Program can help prepare first-generation, low-income and/or underrepresented students be successful in graduate school.		First-generation college, low-income and/or underrepresented, First year, Second Year.	Nicole Truesdell
2:00	SC 117	Mathematics		Decision for Great Scientific Careers The session will include an edited version of a talk by Mac Hyman, the former president of the Society for Industrial and Applied Mathematics, about how to make decisions that will lead to great scientific careers. The presentation will be followed by a discussion conducted by Parimah Kazemi where students will have time to reflect.		First year, Second Year, Junior.	Parimah Kazemi
2:00	SC 140	Physics and Astronomy		Information on the physics major and pre-engineering programs for first and second-year students.		First year, Second Year.	Patrick Polley and Britt Scharringhausen
2:00	SC 150		Answering the "So What?" Question	Who Are You? What is it like to be.... An international student, transfer, veteran, athlete, White, Black, Latino, male, queer, Christian? None of the above? What is it like to be you at Beloit College? It's vitally important to have authentic, sustained dialogue across campus about these questions, to make our campus truly inclusive. This session will provide space and skills for all who want to join in!		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Cecil Youngblood, Bill Conover, Sarah Tweedale
2:00	SC 201		Making and Leveraging Connections	Student Leadership in Practice Beloit students are exercising leadership skills and potential every single day. Attend this session to learn about how your experiences as a student employee, club member, athlete, classmate and/or friend translate into applied leadership skills. You might be surprised by your own leadership potential.		Junior, Senior.	Jen Walsh and Tim Schmiechen
2:00	SC 202		Aspiring	Just for Seniors: Where Do I Go From		Senior.	Marion Fass and

			Beyond Beloit	Here? Yay!! You made it! You're a senior! Now, what?!?! We invite you to come to this low-stress session, and take some concrete steps toward figuring out your next steps for putting those liberal arts into practice "for real." (By the way, you don't want to miss this opportunity to work with Marion and Kathy--in their last semester together at Beloit College!)			Kathy Greene
2:00	SC 245	Environmental Studies		Environmental Studies Information and Feedback Session on New Directions (Cookies and Milk provided!!)		First year, Second Year.	Jo Ortel
2:00	SC 301		Aspiring Beyond Beloit	Put in on Your Resume: Off-Campus Study Off-campus study, in the U.S. or abroad, can be a terrific asset when applying for graduate study or jobs, but only if you know how to translate what you learned into language others will understand. In this session, we will experiment with ways in which you can translate your off-campus experiences into language you can use on your resume and in job interviews.		Junior, Senior.	Josh Moore and OIE Staff
2:00	SC 302		Aspiring Beyond Beloit	The Liberal Arts Job Search (in Less than Ten Steps) Seniors, are you freaked out by the job search process? Ease your panic and start your job search at this workshop! At this session, you will learn the steps for developing a professional job search, including how to articulate your strengths as a liberal arts practitioner and source opportunities that are right for you.		Senior.	Jessica Fox-Wilson
2:00	SC 349		Aspiring Beyond Beloit	Graduate School: What to Do When Come find out about the steps you should take to prepare for graduate school and when you should take them.		Second Year, Junior.	Emily Sager
2:00	SC 402		Finding Balance And Health	Money Matters Practical tips for how to better understand and manage your finances so they don't manage you! Topics may include debt, credit, taxes, budgeting, investments, life insurance, philanthropy and financial literacy. Bring your questions!		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Jon Urish
2:00	SC 414	Chemistry, Biochemistry		How can I find a summer research position in chemistry or biochemistry? Its time to start searching for next summer!		Second Year, Junior.	Braun
2:00	SC 444	Geology		Call of the Wild!! - Learn about geology field experiences including student research, study abroad, and the excursion to the Grand Canyon and northeastern Arizona happening this spring.		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Jim Rougvie
2:00	Science Center 249	Biology		Biologyists: Wondering how to fulfill your LAP requirement? We'll discuss how to find summer programs (REU, Beloit Biomed Scholars, Sustainability Fellows, Sanger Scholars, and other) and academic year internships, research, and other opportunities. We'll also talk about how to choose a LAP experience that will help you make plans for your future.		Second Year, Junior.	Biology faculty
2:00	Science Center 347	Health and Society		HEAL seniors presenting on LAP opportunities in the HEAL major		First year, Second Year.	Ron Nikora
2:00	WAC North	Comparative		Comparative Literature Open House		First year, Second	Kosta Hadavas

	Lounge (aka WAC 109)	Literature		– Everything You Always Wanted to Know about Comparative Literature but Were Afraid to Ask. If you like languages, literature, films, and graphic novels from different cultures, and you especially like comparing these things in various ways, then come and talk to us about how comparative literature and you might enjoy a long and beautiful friendship together.		Year, Junior, Senior.
2:00	Wright Art Museum, Logan Room	Studio Art		Introduction to the Studio Art Major/Minor		First year, Second Year.	Scott Espeseth
2:00	Wright Art Museum, Room 202	Art History		What Good is an Art History Major? - Whether you already have defined career aspirations or not, come find out why art history is the ideal major FOR EVERY SINGLE BELOIT COLLEGE GRADUATE! Find out why training in the art of looking -- and fluency in the language of images -- is essential for engaged citizens in the global community of the 21st century.		First year, Second Year.	Joy Beckman, David Boffa
2:30	SC 117	Mathematics		The importance of computer science in mathematics		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Darrah Chavey
3:00	GODF 102	Anthropology		The Anthropology Major/Minor - Students will learn about the requirements for the Anthropology major/minor. They will also hear about various opportunities offered by the department, including grants, scholarships, field schools, research projects, etc., and how these may be applied to the LAP requirement.		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Jennifer Esperanza
3:00	Java Joint	Latin American and Caribbean Studies		Introduction to the Latin American and Caribbean Studies minor.		Students interested in Latin America and the Caribbean who w, First year, Second Year, Junior.	Sylvia López, Pablo Toral, Oswaldo Voysest.
3:00	MI 209	Philosophy		Treats worth salivating over: our courses for next semester and Phil's homemade ice cream		All students interested in philosophy.	Philosophy faculty
3:00	MI 213	Education & Youth Studies		Prospective EDYS majors, all tracks		First year, Second Year.	New, Lou, Greene
3:00	MI-208	Political Science, International Relations		Internships in political science and international relations		First year, Second Year, Junior.	Georgia Duerst-Lahti
3:00	Richardson Auditorium (MI 113)	Economics		Overview of the majors offered by the Economics Department and description of additional opportunities available to Economics majors such as Econ Day, the endowed internship program, and the Upton Forum.		First year, Second Year.	Bob Elder
3:00	SC 116	Mathematics		Engineering Advising Session		.	Paul Campbell, Engineering Program Liaison
3:00	SC 117	Mathematics		Time to socialize with math majors and faculty		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Math faculty
3:00	SC 150		Answering the "So What?" Question	Who Are You? What is it like to be.... An international student, transfer, veteran, athlete, White, Black, Latino, male, queer, Christian? None of the above? What is it like to be you at Beloit College? It's vitally important to have		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Cecil Youngblood, Bill Conover, Sarah Tweedale authentic, sustained dialogue across campus about these questions, to make our campus truly inclusive. This session will provide space and skills for all who want to join in!

3:00	SC 201		Making and Leveraging Connections	Writing Proposals: Money and Opportunities Await Learn about writing strong proposals for funding or opportunities. What are the elements of a successful proposal? How do you put the pieces together to get what you want?		Junior, Senior.	Carol Wickersham
3:00	SC 202		Aspiring Beyond Beloit	What can you add to your toolbox? How programs like Peace Corps, Fulbright, AmeriCorps [etc.] may illuminate your path. This session will assist students in long-term planning for post-graduate fellowships such as Fulbright, Peacecorps and Americorps. What is the ideal background and skills for these programs? How can those skills and experiences be acquired before beginning the application process? We will also walk through the fundamentals of the application process from beginning to end. Beloit alum will be available via Skype to discuss their personal trajectories and first-hand experiences in successfully applying for these programs.		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Rachel Ellett
3:00	SC 249	Liberal Arts in Practice		Researching and Publishing as an Undergraduate Research isn't complete until it is published; so why not publish undergraduate research? Beloit Undergraduate Research Journal is sponsoring a panel discussion with its student editors and faculty about the importance of undergraduate research and how publishing it can benefit your post-baccalaureate goals.		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Kristin Bonnie and Students
3:00	SC 301		Aspiring Beyond Beloit	Communicating the value of your liberal arts education to employers While you know that your liberal arts education has provided you with the skills you need to do be an effective employee, how can you communicate this value to prospective employers? In this session, we'll discuss resume and interview strategies that can help you express the ways in which your Beloit College education makes you a desirable and highly capable candidate.		Junior, Senior.	Christi Clancy
3:00	SC 302		Planning Your Curriculum	No Job is a Bad Job Everyone will experience the not-so-perfect job at some point in his or her career, and for many that happens early in professional life. This session will help you think about how each job, each assignment can be an opportunity to learn, an opportunity to demonstrate your skills, or both. Join current students in a discussion about their experiences with a "bad job," and learn how they transformed them in to valuable, productive learning opportunities.		Junior, Senior.	Jen Droege and Students
3:00	SC 349		Finding Balance And Health	Stress! (huh! good God!) What is it good for? Absolutely nothin'! This session will address some of the effects of stress, both acute and chronic, on the body and mind. Quick paths to stress reduction, including fun		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Lisl Walsh biofeedback mechanisms, yoga therapies, and breathing techniques, will then be presented and explored.

3:00	SC 402		Making and Leveraging Connections	Networking: On Campus, in the Community, and Beyond Want to realize your potential? Come find out how to leverage the connections you make in the direction of success.		Junior, Senior.	Brian Morello
3:00	Science Center 340	Biology, Chemistry, Biochemistry		Planning to take Biometrics (BIOL 247) or Nutrition and Metabolism (BIOL/CHEM 260) next semester? You must obtain permission in advance to enroll in these courses. Come to this session to learn about these courses and apply for permission to enroll.		Current and prospective majors, First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Yaffa Grossman and Ted Gries
3:00	WAC South Lounge	Modern Languages and Literatures		Challenge Yourself: Why You Should Consider Studying a Critical Language (Arabic, Chinese, Japanese, and Russian) at Beloit		First year, Second Year.	Daniel Youd
3:30	WAC North Lounge (aka WAC 109)	Classics, Comparative Literature, History		Classics, Comparative Literature, and History (Pre-)Halloween Costume Party. Come and try out your Halloween costume a day before Halloween! See your favorite faculty members from Classics and History dressed up in historically authentic (and some not so authentic) garb from days of yore! Enter a costume competition! Eat pizza!		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Kosta Hadavas, Ellen Joyce, and the faculty of the Classics and History departments

