

Spring Advising Practicum, March 26, 2014

9:00-10:20 Initiatives Workshops for first year students.

Selected Events

All Events for All Departments, Programs, Offices or All Themes

Time Block	Location	Department Program or Office	Theme	Title	Type	Audience	Facilitators
9:00-10:20	MI Richardson	Religious Studies, History, Philosophy, Critical Identity Studies		Alumni panel: Alumni from Humanities (-ish) disciplines and interdisciplines will talk about life post-Beloit, and share their perspectives with current students.		All curious students, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Various faculty and alumni
9:00-10:20	SC 241	Psychology		"Options for and Planning for Graduate School in a Psychology-Related Field" Come share a bagel with the Psychology faculty and learn more about paths for graduate training in psychology or a related field. Whether you are interested in a research career or are focused more on applied areas, we'll talk about varied paths and how to best prepare a competitive application.		Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Psychology Faculty
9:00-10:20	SC 444	Geology		Geology Advising Breakfast. This session focuses on advising for 2014-15 including fall and spring course offerings, Field Excursion 2015, planning for Field Geology, and summer research projects.		Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Mendelson, Swanson, Rougvie
9:00-10:20	SC147	Biology, Biochemistry		Writing a manuscript for The Beloit Biologist--what it means and how to request enrollment		For current sophomore and junior Biology and Biochemistry majors, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Yaffa Grossman
12:00-12:45	805 Church Street	Religious Studies		Religious studies lunch! Majors and minors are invited to lunch at Professor Natalie Gummer's house.		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Natalie Gummer and Chris Jones
12:00-12:45	Eaton Chapel Stage	Music		Unveiling the Music Curriculum		First year, Second Year, Junior.	Daniel Barolsky, Tes Slominski
12:00-12:45	Godfrey Lobby	Anthropology		Lunch & Mingle		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Department Faculty
12:00-12:45	Kresge Theatre	Theatre, Dance & Media Studies		Departmental Lunch		.	Department faculty
12:00-12:45	Liberal Arts in Practice Center	Sociology		Lunch with the Sociology Department--All majors and prospective majors are invited.		.	Kate Linnenberg, Charles Westerberg, Carla Davis, Carol Wickersham, Kieran Bezila, Kendra Schiffman
12:00-12:45	MI-208	International		IR/POLS Lunch Social event to build		First year,	Jill Budny,

		Relations, Political Science		community among IR/POLS faculty and students, including majors, minors and prospective students.		Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Rachel Ellett, John Rapp
12:00-12:45	Mathers	Critical Identity Studies		Lunch for CRIS majors -- Come eat, chat, and find out what's courses are coming up next fall when our new CRIS Teaching Fellow arrives		.
12:00-12:45	Richardson Auditorium (MI 113)	Economics		Free Lunch with Economists. Maximize your utility by consuming pizza and asking Econ profs about the many opportunities available to Econ majors. The price of the pizza will be zero, and the price of asking questions also will be zero. Thus, your consumer surplus will include the entire area under your demand curve for pizza as well as the entire area under your demand curve for answers to questions about majoring in Economics.		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Economics Department Faculty
12:00-12:45	SC 249	Health Professions		Health professions advising and medical school panel		Current or prospective students interested in medical school.	HPAC faculty
12:00-12:45	SC 349	Biology, Biochemistry		Biology and Biochemistry lunch and peer advising		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Grossman, Yasukawa, Mankiewicz, Johnson, Briggs, Gravis, Soper, Gries
12:00-12:45	SC 414	Chemistry, Biochemistry		What chemistry are you taking next semester? Pizza and peer advising		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Lisensky
12:00-12:45	Smith Building, 2nd Floor	Art History, Studio Art		Studio Art and Art History Majors/Minors Lunch - Prospective majors/minors invited. Join us for Pizza and conversation. Learn about what's going on in the art & art history department.		*See Below.	Studio Art & Art History Faculty
12:00-12:45	WAC 109	English		The Book Was Better II: Lunch with the English Department		.	Chris Fink
12:00-12:45	WAC South Lounge	Classics		Classics Lunch - enjoy pizza and snacks with both faculty and current majors. Ask questions about the Classics Department's two majors and one minor, language study, and study abroad opportunities. Learn about the upcoming classes for next term.		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	kosta Hadavas, Lisl Walsh, Matthew Taylor
1:00-1:45	Eaton Chapel Stage	Music		Unveiling the Music Curriculum (encore)		First year, Second Year, Junior.	Daniel Barolsky, Tes Slominski
1:00-1:45	GODF 102	Anthropology		Senior Moments		First year, Second Year.	Lisa Anderson-Levy & Student Guests
1:00-1:45	Kresge Theatre	Theatre, Dance & Media Studies		Student Panel: Tobin Walters, "IS all the World a Stage?" Finding Performance Opportunities in a Small College / Small Town World; Marilu (Coinne) Wiesner, "Show Me the Money." Getting Funding for Performances & Projects; Ben Vogt, "Bringing It Together with Ben." How a Multi Major Makes It All Work; Ethan Blumenthal & Michaela Bram, "Destination: Graduation" How a Transfer Student gets it done.		.
1:00-1:45	Liberal Arts in Practice Center	Sociology		Exploring Paths Taken Post-Beloit--and How Sociology Helped Along the Way. Come hear from Sociology alums about		.	Matt Aslesen '08, Tamara Fouche '10, Kim

				what they've done since graduating from Beloit. One is involved in Urban Planning, another works for a documentary film company, and the third is working on a PhD in Sociology.			Pernell-Gallagher '07
1:00-1:45	MI 207	Critical Identity Studies		CRIS Information Session - Maybe You're Already Doing CRIS (Whether You Know It or Not) Lots of CRIS majors figure it out late. Their transcript is full of courses from across the curriculum that focus on race, sexuality, gender, religiosity, dis/ability, difference, and power. But because they take all those crosslisted courses through faculty home departments, the pattern on the transcript remains hidden. This session is designed for folks who have questions about CRIS: What kind of major is it? What paths can I take with it? What will it do for me in life after Beloit?		.	Sarah-JaneCikara, Rachel Bond, and Catherine Orr
1:00-1:45	Richardson Auditorium (MI 113)	Economics		Road Maps for Econ Students: Across the 4 Years at Beloit and Beyond. A timetable for reaching important curricular benchmarks such as Principles, Micro, Macro, Quant and Senior Sem will be described, and elective courses that broaden and deepen your economic expertise will be noted along the journey. Additional opportunities from Econ Day to internship awards to Belmark to CELEB to the Upton Forum will be highlighted, and potential post-graduation trajectories will be discussed also.		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Economics Professor Laura Grube and additional Economics Department Faculty
1:00-1:45	SC 130	Physics and Astronomy		A session for students interested in pursuing a career focusing on astronomy.		First year, Second Year, Junior.	Britt Scharringhausen
1:00-1:45	SC 140	Physics and Astronomy		Applied Physics and Engineering. This session is for students interested in an applied physics or pre-engineering track.		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Patrick Polley
1:00-1:45	SC 340	Biology		Biometrics and Genetics enrollment requests		Students planning to take Biometrics and/or Genetics during Fall 2014 (required), First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Yasukawa, Briggs
1:00-1:45	SC 341	Biology, Biochemistry		Biology and Biochemistry Dessert-Advising session		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Grossman, Yasukawa, Mankiewicz, Johnson, Briggs, Gravis, Soper, Gries
1:00-1:45	SC 414	Chemistry, Biochemistry		Chemistry and Biochemistry Advising and Ice Cream		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Lisensky, Braun, Parmentier, Gries
1:00-1:45	SC 414	Health Professions		Health Professions Advising and Ice Cream		Current and prospective health professions students.	HPAC faculty
1:00-1:45	SC 444	Geology, Environmental Studies		GeoCorps and More. GeoCorps America is a program of the Geological Society of America, in partnership with the U.S. Forest Service, the Bureau of Land		First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Carl Mendelson

Management, and the National Park Service. The program offers paid short-term geoscience positions in some of the most beautiful natural areas in the world. Come learn about GeoCorps from Tirzah Abbott '12.

1:00-1:45	WAC 109	English		Salon Beloit: Recent English Majors share their literary success	.	Francesca Abbate
1:00-1:45	WAC 202, WAC 206, WAC 207	Modern Languages and Literatures		Individual sessions for advising, study abroad, internship, and language placement exams for students interested and majoring in the Dept. of Modern Languages & Literatures.	Second Year, Junior, Senior.	MLL Faculty
1:00-1:45	WAC South Lounge	Classics		Classics Open House - enjoy snacks with both faculty and current majors. Ask questions about the Classics Department's two majors and one minor, language study, study abroad opportunities, etc. Learn about grad school and other post-Beloit experiences of past majors.	First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Kosta Hadavas, Lisl Walsh, Matthew Taylor
1:00-1:45	Wright Art Museum, Logan Room	Art History		Studying Abroad as an Art History Major: What We Wish We'd Known Before We Went. Join art history majors Natalie Ross, Ezzie Turner, Anicka Schanilec for a discussion of what you need to know about studying abroad as an art history major. Natalie, Ezzie and Anicka will also discuss the advantages (and disadvantages) of various programs.	First year, Second Year, Junior.	Jo Ortel, Joy Beckman, David Boffa
2:00-2:45		Studio Art		Grad School for the Art Major	*See Below, Junior, Senior.	Mark Klassen
2:00-2:45	GODF 102	Anthropology		So, You're Thinking about Grad School...	Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Shannon Fie, Kylie Quave, Alum Panel
2:00-2:45	MI 226 (Fireside Lounge)	Philosophy		Ice Cream Social - Meet philosophy faculty and students, hear about next semester's courses, and learn more about the philosophy major and minor. With or without sprinkles.	First year, Second Year, Junior.	Heath Massey, Matt Tedesco, Robin Zebrowski
2:00-2:45	Richardson Auditorium (MI 113)	Economics		Road Maps for Econ Students: Across the 4 Years at Beloit and Beyond. A timetable for reaching important curricular benchmarks such as Principles, Micro, Macro, Quant and Senior Sem will be described, and elective courses that broaden and deepen your economic expertise will be noted along the journey. Additional opportunities from Econ Day to internship awards to Belmark to CELEB to the Upton Forum will be highlighted, and potential post-graduation trajectories will be discussed also.	First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Economics Professor Laura Grube and additional Economics Department Faculty
2:00-2:45	SC 130	Physics and Astronomy		Theoretical and Experimental Physics. A session for students interested in pursuing interests in physics.	First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Paul Stanley
2:00-2:45	SC 212	Mathematics		Changes in the Math and CS curriculums. The Math Department is planning to hire an applied mathematician. This will lead to some new courses being added to the math curriculum. The retirement of Rama Vishwanathan may also produce changes in the cs curriculum. Tea and cake will be served	First year, Second Year, Junior.	Steve Huss-Lederman and Ranjan Roy
2:00-2:45	SC147	Environmental Studies, Biology		Finding field internship and research experiences for summer and after graduation	First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.

2:00-2:45	WAC 109	English		The English Major Beyond the Classroom: Writing, editing, publishing, networking	.	Francesca Abbate and Chris Fink
2:00-2:45	WAC South Lounge	Comparative Literature		Everything You Wanted to Know about Comparative Literature But Were Afraid to Ask If you like languages, literatures, films, and graphic novels from different cultures, and you especially like comparing these things in different ways, then come and talk to us about how comparative literature and you might enjoy and long and beautiful friendship together.	First year, Second Year, Junior, Senior.	Kosta Hadavas

